

LOVE OF YOUR COUNTRY

"Youngster, you don't know what it is to be without a family, without a home, without a country. And if you are ever tempted to say a word or do a thing that shall put a bar between you and your family, your home and your country, pray God in His mercy to take you that instant home to His own heaven. Stick by your family, boy; forget that you have a self while you do everything for them. Think of your home, boy; write and talk about it. Let it be nearer to your thought the farther you have to travel from it; and rush back to it when you are free. And for your country, boy, never dream a dream but of serving her as she bids you, though the service carry you through a thousand hells. No matter what happens to you, no matter who flatters you or abuses you, never look at another flag, never let a night pass but you pray God to bless the Stars and Stripes. Remember that you belong to your own country as you belong to your own mother; stand by her as you would stand by your own mother."—EDWARD EVERETT HALE.

PERSHING RUSHES AID TO AMBUSHED TROOPERS

Here's Company G. From Wewoka--Full of Pep--Ready and Willing

MEXICAN ENVOY ASKS WHAT TROOPS MEANT IN GOING FROM BASE

Air of Grim Purpose in Washington as War Hovers Near.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—An official communication from the Mexican foreign office announcing the clash between Mexican and American troops at Carrizal and saying the de facto government found it difficult to understand why the Americans should have been so far away from their base, was delivered to Secretary Lansing today by Eliseo Arredondo, the Mexican ambassador designate.

Ask For Explanation.

Arredondo asked for an explanation of the action of American troops in approaching the town of Carrizal. He also sought an explanation of the reported action of General Pershing in occupying the towns of Casa Grandes and Nuevo Casas Grandes, saying such an act would be one of open hostility.

Secretary Lansing had an official information on which to discuss the Carrizal affair and, according to Mr. Arredondo, also was without knowledge of whether any Mexican towns actually had been occupied.

Official Mexican dispatches were described to Secretary Lansing indicating that the Mexican forces thought the American troops who approached Carrizal intended to take the town. Mr. Arredondo said he called Secretary Lansing's attention to the distance traversed by the American troops from their base and to the American troops' lack of prudence of the American commander in approaching the Mexican village.

He said his reports showed that seventeen American soldiers had been captured but did not give the number of casualties among either the Americans or the Mexican forces.

Works Demands Vote.

Discussion of the Mexican situation was precipitated in the senate today by Senator Works of California, who called up his resolution to authorize intervention, had it read and gave notice that unless the foreign relations committee acted soon he would move to take the matter out of its hands.

There was an air of grim purpose about the war and state departments. Secretary Baker conferred with President Wilson on the basis of reports given out by Mexican commanders at the border and transmitted to the state department. Later, Senator Lansing was cleared with the war secretary and afterward Mr. Baker hastened to the capitol for conference with the congressional military committee chairman.

Works Hot With Inquiries.

No explanation for these conferences was given. It was learned however, that telegraph wires were hot with inquiries sent to various governors seeking reports of the number of national guard regiments mobilized and available for immediate service. Officials said President Wilson would await a definite report from General Pershing of what has happened.

At the White House it was said the president's policy was unchanged for the present at least and that Mr. Wilson had no intention of going before Congress immediately.

No reports have come from General Funston indicating that he had knowledge of additional troop movements or was preparing to send more men to General Pershing.

GREECE YIELDS TO ALL DEMANDS MADE BY ALLIES

Accepts Without Reserve, But Under Pressure, Terms Of Note.

ATHENS, June 22.—Via London, June 22.—Under heavy pressure from the Entente powers, Greece has accepted without reserve the demands presented today in a joint note by Great Britain, France and Russia.

At the most critical moment, Greece was without a government. Premier Skouloudis announced the resignation of himself and the cabinet and the failure for the present to obtain successors. M. Skouloudis refused to re-vest the commandments from the entente powers.

For enlistment in company D, Arkansas National Guard. The journey was made in four hours and ten minutes.

Meanwhile King Constantine returned hastily to Athens. All the troops in the city were ordered under arms. The people of Athens remained calm.

The note of the allied powers out that demobilization of the Greek army must be complete and immediate.

Dissolution of the Greek chamber, to be followed by general elections, also is required, as well as the replacement of police officials alleged to be under foreign influence.

MEXICAN AT NACO KILLS AMERICAN

NACO, Ariz., June 22.—One American soldier was killed and three others injured when William Humphrey, a half-breed Mexican, employed as guard at the waterworks, opened fire on members of company E, Fourteenth United States infantry as the guard was being changed.

The sergeant in charge of the guard was one of the three injured. He was shot in the back. Another soldier was shot through the neck and the third wounded in the hip. Humphrey was overpowered.

A large number of Mexican refugees were crossing the line into Mexico today from the Bisbee and Lowell districts.

GYM partner with a family and a pocketbook, who can't go to Mexico, but who does want to help the boys—I'm talking to you today.

If one man in every office building in town would decide to "do his bit" by visiting every office in the building and giving people the opportunity of subscribing to the Times canteen fund, why it's a safe bet we could have $1,000 before the fellows leave for the border.

I know you're proud of this Oklahoma City contingent, but why not show your pride in a measurable way by dropping a mite in the canteen?

You've never been in a desolate country so far from home, facing a few rods of outpost with a heavy rifle on your shoulder, murky night, natives lurking about in the brush and you wishing for a smoke and no tobacco for your old coot.

Well, fellow, we want to have the tobacco there for our boys. We want to give Mayor Ed a check for a thousand dollars. In hand to the company commander when the gang hops on the cars and heads south.

We want you standing on the platform when Overholser says,

"Here, boys—this is a little gift from the men and women of Oklahoma City. It isn't much. It will buy a few extra, a little smoking, perhaps a phonograph and a few records, a company shaving kit or a camp kitchen. It's yours, spend it for what you will and remember that we have your hearts here at home and we want you all back—good bye and good luck."

Full Pay To Magnolia Men As Soldiers

Wives of Married Employees to Receive Salaries During Term of Service.

The most generous and patriotic financial accommodation made by any employer in Oklahoma since President Wilson's mobilization order was announced.

Mr. Converse, manager of the Magnolia Petroleum company, in proclaiming that the wives of all married employees enlisted for service would receive these compensation from the entente powers on the ground that no government exists.

Mr. Converse went further. He stated that all unmarried men would be given their regular salaries less $10 per month.

Thus, if a man was receiving $15 a month, he would get, regularly, pay at the rate of $14 a month from the Magnolia company.

Care for Dependents.

Should any unmarried man be the only means of support of a mother or other relative, Mr. Converse stated, the company would make special provision, which would mean payment of that employee's full salary to the dependent one and should he be assisting only in such support but is assisting to such extent as to make his wife's income $10 would be an ex-servant one of the dependent ones throughout his absence.

These directions from the Magnolia company's headquarters were supplemented by the statement that all employees who enlist would find their old positions or better ones, open for them when they returned from their service in Uncle Sam's army.

Provision by Others.

Other large companies also were reported to be making liberal provision for their employees who went into the service, all practically guaranteeing that those dependent relatives left behind would be cared for generously.

In the Magnolia order only enlisted men were provided for by the commissioned officers. If any, receiving sufficient large salaries from the government to provide for their families.

These directions from the Magnolia company's headquarters were supplemented by the statement that all employees who enlist would find their old positions or better ones, open for them when they returned from their service in Uncle Sam's army.

Fear Typhus Germs.

They said the grounds at Chandler were low, had been overflooded and were unsanitary, and that if the mobilization camp were moved these many state guardmen would go to the front with typhus germs in their systems. All felt that the change was a political one and not determined by expediency or consideration.

Activities Explained.

Complete explanation of activities now on the part of the Oklahoma guard were sent to wire to Washington by Governor Williams and Adjutant General Converse, and night the Chandler to investigate the condition of the mobilization camp for Oklahoma's national guard.

The detail was expected to make a thorough inquiry into sanitary conditions at the ordered camp-ground and to report immediately to the proper authorities.

The report then would be submitted to Washington, and orders awaited.

Examination Site.

TROOPS OPPOSE CHANDLER CAMP; WAIT ON ORDER

Medical Detail Goes to Inspect Designated Site: Guardsmen at Drill.

None of the units of the Oklahoma National guard now in Oklahoma City has received orders to remove to Chandler notwithstanding the order from the war department received here last night designating that place as the permanent mobilization point in the state.

It is understood that vigorous efforts are being put forth to secure a countermand of the order, and not one of 100 guardsmen has gone to the camp, and privates interested in the subject this morning, but expressed the hope that the state guardsmen would not be mobilized at Chandler.

Two Squadrons Off To Find Soldiers Mexicans Trapped

General Reports to Funston He Is Without News of Force That Rode Into Pitfall Prepared by Mexicans Near Carrizal.

Developments of Day in Mexican Situation

Carrizal battle reported precipitated by Mexicans digging pitfall to trap American soldiers after having warned them to turn back.

General Pershing reports he sent out two squadrons to obtain reports of battle.

Mexican reports say twelve Americans were killed and seventeen captured.

Mexican envoy at Washington asks Lansing what Americans meant by going so far from base.

Lansing is prepared to take definite action when official report on battle is received.

No movements of national guard has been ordered, but war department inquires concerning preparation.

Mexican forces continue movement along border, apparently preparing to defend against attack.

American train artillery on Juarez and evacuation of city by Mexicans is begun.

Medical detail goes to inspect Chandler site and movement of Oklahoma troops awaits report.

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, June 22.—General Pershing reported to General Funston today that he had not yet received a report on the fight at Carrizal but added that on information sent to him he had sent two squadrons of the Eleventh cavalry with instructions to get in touch with the trooper of the Tenth that was engaged Wednesday by the Mexican forces.

General Funston made it plain that General
